Shimpling Village Hall Management Committee

Safeguarding Policy and Procedures

Reviewed and updated annually Last review January 2024 Next review January 2025

Introduction:

Shimpling Village Hall Management Committee abides by the duty of care to safeguard and promote the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and is committed to safeguarding practice that reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice requirements.

- We recognise the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults is paramount
- All children, young people, and vulnerable adults regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse

Purpose:

Shimpling Village Hall Management Committee will:

- Protect children, young people and vulnerable adults
- Provide volunteers, as well as children and young people and their families, and vulnerable adults with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of Shimpling Village Hall Management Committee including any volunteers.

Definitions:

Children: The Children Act 1989 definition of a child is: anyone who has not yet reached their 18th birthday, even if they are living independently, are a member of the armed forces or in hospital.

Adult: The Protection of Vulnerable Adults Scheme 2004 definition of a vulnerable adult is: a person who is over 18 years of age and by reason of mental or other disability, age or illness, and who is or may be unable to take care of themselves, or unable to protect themselves from significant harm or serious exploitation

Child and Vulnerable Adult Abuse: Children and adults may be vulnerable to neglect and abuse or exploitation from within their family and from individuals they come across in their daily lives. There are 4 main categories of abuse, which are: sexual, physical, emotional abuse, and neglect. It is important to be aware of more specific types of abuse that fall within these categories, they are:

- Bullying and cyberbullying
- Child or vulnerable adult sexual exploitation
- Child or vulnerable adult criminal exploitation
- Child trafficking
- Domestic abuse
- Female genital mutilation
- Grooming
- Historical abuse
- Online abuse

In addition, there are specific categories of abuse which apply to vulnerable adults:

- Financial or Material Abuse
- Modern Slavery

Safeguarding children:

Safeguarding children is defined in Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018 as:

- protecting children from maltreatment.
- preventing impairment of children's health or development.
- ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care.
- taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults:

Safeguarding vulnerable adults is defined in The Care Act (2014) as:

- Protecting vulnerable adults from maltreatment
- Ensuring that vulnerable adults are offered safe and effective care
- Taking action to ensure that all vulnerable adults have the best possible outcomes

Legal Framework

This policy has been drawn up based on legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children in England.

A summary of the key legislation is available from nspcc.org.uk/learning.and https://www.scie.org.uk/key-social-care-legislation/safeguarding-adults

Training and Awareness:

Shimpling Village Hall Management Committee will ensure an appropriate level of safeguarding training is available to its members and volunteers and any relevant persons linked to the organisation who requires it.

For all members who are working or volunteering with children and vulnerable adults, this requires them as a minimum to have awareness training that enables them to:

- Understand what safeguarding is and their role in safeguarding children and vulnerable adults
- Recognise a child or vulnerable adult potentially in need of safeguarding and take action.
- Understand how to report a safeguarding alert.
- Understand dignity and respect when working with children and vulnerable adults.
